

Join in! Create global learning in your community

You are interested in topics like environmental protection, climate change, nutrition, health, care work and global justice? You want to know more about what is behind the buzzword "Global Learning"? How is it different to Education for Sustainable Development? Are you wondering how to make the topics exciting for your community? You have already made experiences with it and want to make more?

Join our planning weekend on Global Learning. The weekend is primarily aimed at multipliers and people connected to Damigra, Yeşil Çember and the ENS (Entwicklungspolitischen Netzwerk Sachsen, Saxony Development Policy Network).

During the weekend, we will present a series of activities that we are planning in the course of 2022, for which you can develop content contributions together with us. We consider your perspectives and see if and how you would like to enrich our global learning events. These include field trips into nature and to places of lived alternatives to Global Learning - between June and August. Examples could be: visiting a brown coal open pit mine, visiting a solidarity agriculture initiative and much more.

The goal of the excursions is to gain knowledge and experience of the connection between climate change, environmental pollution and social injustice.

Furthermore, we want to write a multilingual "ABC of Global Learning" and we organize a conference on the topic of "Care Work/Care" and Global Justice (September/October). The weekend is not only for planning and will also impart content.

People who contribute to our activities will receive a certificate from us. There will also be opportunities to receive expense allowances or honoraria.

Participation is limited to 15 people. We offer childcare for the planning weekend. The working language will be German. We will provide language mediation if needed.
