

Lunchtime discussion with Vincent Liegey on "A Degrowth Project"

---

October 14, 2015

12:00 pm – 01:00 pm

Vienna University of Economics and Business, TC.4.03 Auditorium, building TC
Welthandelsplatz 1, 1020 Vienna

Have you heard about the Degrowth Movement? Have you ever wanted to learn more about this growing cause which attempts to outline pathways for democratic and serene transitions towards prosperity without growth?

Join us for a discussion about what the Degrowth movement represents.

Vincent Liegey, Co-author of „A Degrowth Project, Manifesto for an Unconditional Autonomy Allowance”, Éditions Utopia, 2013, spokesperson of the French Degrowth movement, interdisciplinary researcher and coordinator of the Degrowth inspired Cargonomia social cooperative, center for sustainable logistical solutions and local food distribution by cargobikes in Budapest. He is also one of the coordinator of the next international Degrowth conference which will take place in Budapest in September 2016.

After a welcome by Fred Luks, Head of the Competence Center for Sustainability, Ines Omann, sustainability researcher, will moderate the lunchtime discussion.
